3 agreement if the parent who was not a party to the authorization
4 agreement:

6 access to the child who is the subject of the authorization
7 agreement; and

8 (2) has previously committed an act of family
9 violence, as defined by Section 71.004, or assault against the 10 parent who is a party to the authorization agreement, the child who 11 is the subject of the authorization agreement, or another child of 12 the parent who is a party to the authorization agreement, as 13 documented by one or more of the following:

23 SECTION 5. Section 34.008, Family Code, is amended by 24 adding Subsection (f) to read as follows:

25 (f) Execution of a subsequent authorization agreement does 26 not by itself supersede, invalidate, or terminate a prior 27 authorization agreement.

1           SECTION 6. (a) Except as provided by Subsections (b) and 2 (c) of this section, the changes in law made by this Act apply only
3 to an authorization agreement executed on or after the effective
4 date of this Act. An authorization agreement executed before that 5 date is governed by the law in effect on the date the authorization
6 agreement was executed, and the former law is continued in effect
7 for that purpose.

8           (b) Subsection (d), Section 34.002, Family Code, as added by 9 this Act, applies to an authorization agreement under Chapter 34,
10 Family Code, regardless of whether the agreement was executed
11 before, on, or after the effective date of this Act.

12           (c) Notwithstanding Subsection (b) of this section, if, on 13 the effective date of this Act, more than one valid authorization
14 agreement is in effect for a child, each authorization agreement
15 remains in effect, under the law as it existed immediately before 16 the effective date of this Act, until August 31, 2012, or until the 17 date the authorization agreement is terminated, whichever date is 18 earlier. If, on September 1, 2012, more than one valid 19 authorization agreement remains in effect for a child, the most 20 recently executed authorization agreement controls, and all 21 authorization agreements executed before that agreement are 22 considered terminated.

23           SECTION 7. This Act takes effect September 1, 2011.
